MARLBORO' HOTEL.

The subscriber would respectfully give notice that he has taken the MARLBORO' HOTEL, and is now reasly to see his friends. The house has been thoroughly repaired, enlarged, and neatly painted and papered. The furniture and bedding are new, and the accommodations in the city. No pains will be spared to furnish the table with every variety the market affords. Efforts will be made to furnish the table with the products of free labor, and provision will also be made for those who prefer vegetable diet. Religious worship will be regularly maintained every day, and as far as possible to prevent, so company be received or bills will be ettled on the Subbath. No smoking allowed. The Hotel will be kept entirely on the Temperance principles, and while not a particle of intoxicating liquor will be sold or used, it will be a quiet home for gentlemen travelling with their families, as well as for others. There are several suits of rooms for the accommodation of small families as permanent board of the principle, that the great business of the wife is education—the education of herself and her family." It discusses the following subjects:

Antibilious Pills!

For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Eistlessness, Headache, Costiveness, Flatulence, Cholic, Bitious Affections, &c.

100 comment on the efficacy of these Pills, after a successful experience of many years in England and America has established their reputation, is needless—suffice it to observe, that for redundancy of Bile. Flatulence, Costiveness, Headache, &c. they will undoubtedly prove for more serviceable than those drastic purges too frequently employed, and will not only at the same time tend to remove the offending cause by gentle motions, and strengthen the digestive organs, but improve the appetite and renovate the system.

Price 50 cents.

THE TOOTH ACHE!
This agontzing disorder is cured in its most painful stages, by one of the most simple as well as powerful remedies known in modern practice. The CAMBRIAN TOOTH ACHE PILLS afford instant relief, without inflicting the slightest injury on the teeth. They are applied externally to the parts affected, with the greatest case and expedition, and generally operate as a soothing lenitive to the suffering patient.

WHITE TETH! AND HEARTHY GUMS! MINOSE who would retain, or restore these desirable personal advantages, are assured that no composition can be obtained superior to the BRITISH ANTISEPTIC DENTIFRICE.

This is an elegant and pleasant preparation in every respect and has for many years past, given general satisfaction wherever it has been used.

and has for many years past, given general satisfaction whereever it has been used.

The Anticeptic Dentifice is exempt from acid and other deleterious ingresients, which too frequently enter the composition of tooth powders in common use, and it whitens the enamel of the teeth without doing it the least injury. The regular use of this admired powder, by purifying the mouth and preventing the accumulation of tartar, operates as the best preventive of the Tooth Ache. The Dentifice removes discolourations, and restores the beautiful native whiteness of the enamel. As its application braces and strongthens the Gums, it secures to them their healthy and florid inc. and by removing all offensive foreign accusulations from the teeth, preserves the natural sweetness of the breath.

ORIGINAL POETRY. THE WEST !- By C. H. EATON.

The West! the West! the far, far West, Where manly hearts are beating, And nature dons her wildest garb-Accept my humble greeting. Nor sickly pomp nor pedant lore In thy proud balls is seen, Thou spurn 'st the tinsel glare without That robes the void within.

Confiding in thy liberal name, Unknown I sought thy hearth, That asks no passport to its cheer, Save simple moral worth. Time ne'er shall change my love to those, Whose kindness hath endear'd me, To look upon a Western home,

E 'en as the one which reared me.

How all unlike the jarring scenes, With Mammon's turmoil ringing, Are thy broad vales, amid whose fruits Content is calmly winging. How proud thy hills, whose cyried peaks, Catch the first smile of morning, A symbol of the destin'd fame, Thy country's page adorning.

Oh better far to bide with thee E'en in thy roughest bearing, Than creep in Avarice's sphere a carall, Though hoarding, still despairing. The potent shaft of sweeping death

Insatiate never tires, E 're this it has made less the group Which circled round thy fires.

Think not alone ye suffer then, The wound which thus bereaves thee; Another bosom feels the pang, And shares the woe that grieves thee. My life-blood beats to thee, fair land, And grateful homage fears not, To meet with scorn the callous seul,

Thy nobleness endears not. Let not my cherish'd elsewhere friends, Who nobly welcom'd me, Think that I value them the less, Apostrophising thee. Did his strong faith to queenly Rome In Brutus's bosom, tend To check a single throb of love

For his ambitious friend. May joy illome thy path with smiles, And Virtue's banded pleasures, As erst, remain to cheer thy homes, With all their garner 'd treasures. Soon to thy wide domain I wend, No tie is here to bind, Or keep me exiled from the scenes,

THE HON. MR ATHERTON'S LETTER.

To the Editor of the N. H. Patriot:

I wish, through the columns of your paper and those of the other Democratic Journals of our State, to draw the attention of my fellow-citizens of New Hampshire to a subject which, under existing circumstances, I cannot but think they will not only excuse me for noticing, but on which they will be of oninten that respect both to them and to myself forbids me to be silent. The Honorable Richard Fletcher, a Representative in Congress from the City of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, was during the late extra Session a member of the Committee of Ways and Means, of which Committee I was, also, a member. In November last, previous to the election in Massachusetts, he delivered a Speech in Fancuil Hall which, as printed, is filled with the most violent abuse of the Administration, principally founded on disclosures which he pretends to make concerning the deings of the Committee of Ways and Means. That Speech has been published in many if not all of the opposition Newspapers in New Hampshire, and it is deemed by the Federalists of Boston so admirably calculated to serve their benevolent purpose of enlightening the Veomanry of the Granite State, that they are said to have caused large quantities to be circulated there in pamphlet form. It is true that, since I had prepared most of this communication, Mr Fletcher has been obliged on the floor of the House of Representatives, to disarrow the printed Speech, and to say that the Report of the Speech was made without authority from him. But he had seen the Speech as printed and he permitted it to go forth under the sanction of his name. He, in fact, by this, adopted it as his own. The Speech contains imputations on the official conduct of all his associates on the Committee except one, and as Mr Fletcher's constituents have taken the trouble to circulate these charges among my own constituents whe have honored me with their confidence, and to whom To the Editor of the N. H. Patriot: mittee except one, and as Mr Fletcher's constituents have taken the trouble to circulate these charges among my own constituents who have honored me with their confidence, and to whom I shall ever delight to be responsible for my acts as their representative, I shall be excused for treating this matter in plain language. Those members of the Committee, whose conduct has been called in question, who had, at the time, arrived at Washington, inserted in the Globe a statement, which I herewith transmit and request you to insert in your columns, above this communication. From that statement the nature of the charges made in the Speech, and their entire groundlessness may be seen.

The charges extracted in the statement referred to, are made charges made in the Speech, and their eatire groundlessness may be seen.

The charges extracted in the statement referred to, are made so selemnly—under circumstances which render such assertions so utterly base, if unfounded in the least particular—they are so studiously introduced by an affectation of moderation and sincerity, that when their reckless and audacious falsehood is known, they strike one with wonder as something attractions.—With those who estimate greatness in proportion to success in evil, and with whom a robber on a large scale is a here, while he who only takes a purse is a regue, they might perhaps rise to the character of sublimity.

For the purposes of giving additional venom to the attacks which follow—at the commencement of the Speech there is a pretence set up that Mr Fletcher was elected in some sort as a no-party man, as if he could have been elected to represent the City of Boston had his enmity to a Democratic Administration been doubtful? An instance of the extreme mikhness and sincerity displayed in this production may be mentioned.—In alluding to the opinions of the President, expressed in his Message, on the causes of the late pecuniary embarrassments—opinions which the President had a right to entertain and express, and in which probably a large majority of the people of the United States coincide—the following language is used:—

'I seek not to stir up party feelings, I wish for cool discussion, and I appeal to every one to say deliberately with what sincerity we can rely on the statement of an Executive which indulges itself in PALERIDONS like these ?' Here is a specimen of cander! This is the manner in which, for a mere expression of opinion, the Chief Magistrate, elected by the suffaces of the freemen of this Nation, is insulted!

One principal object of the Speech seems to be to raise an alarm about Executive dictation. If Mr Fletcher means to assert as a wonderful and unheard of if the Secretary did not do it. It has been the practice of all Heads of Departments since the of the Treasury recommended services in the existing state of the their opinion, become necessary in the existing state of the country. It was their duty thus to do. Their positions and arguments had been examined by the members of the Committee, and each had, doubtless, formed his own opinion of their propriety. Is it to be considered as Executive dictation that the President recommended certain measures in his Message? As a full answer to this it is only necessary to imagine how many charges would have been heard of non-committal and low cunning, if the Bendietz had purposed a contrary course, and shrunk from a would have been heard of non-committal and low cunning, if the President had pursued a contrary course, and shrunk from a manly performance of his duty.

But it should be confessed that the charge in the Speech seems to be not only that the Committee received every bill ready drawn but that they reported them without examination to the House, and it amounts to no less than an imputation on a majority of the Committee of utter inattention, and neglect of their duty. Mr Cambreleng, of New York, Mr McKim, of Maryland, Mr Humer, of Ohio, Mr Jones, of Virginia, Mr Owens, of Georgia, and Mr Rhett, of South Carolina, were of the majority of the Committee.

Mr Cambreleng came into the House in 1821, and has contin-

Georgia, and Mr Rbett, of South Carolina, were of the majority of the Committee.

Mr Cambreleng came into the House in 1821, and has continued a member ever since, this being his seventeenth regular session. He was a member of the Committee of Ways and Means in 1822, 1823 and 1824—in 1825 and 1826 of the Committee of Commerce, and in 1826, 1827, 1828, 1829, 1830, 1831 and 1832, Chairman of that Committee. In 1833 and 1834 he was again on the Committee of Ways and Means, and in 1835 and 1836 Chairman of that Committee. In the Session of 1834 he was also elected Chairman of the Committee on Foreign affairs, Mr Wayne having resigned. Mr McKim has been a member of the House for the Sessions of 1822, 1823 and 1824—1833, 1834, 1835 and 1836, and all this time, except his first Session, on the Committee of Ways and Means. Mr Hamer has been in Congress four regular Sessions, and has been once on the Committee on the Judiciary and twice on the Committee on Foreign affairs. Mr Owens has been in Congress two regular Sessions during both of which he was on the Committee of Ways and Means. Mr Jones has also been in Congress two regular Sessions and his high character is well known to the public. Mr Rhett is well known to be a gentleman of high talents, and distinction in his own State, although he has never before been a Congress. I am not aware that Mr Fietcher has ever before been a member of any Legislative body; and it is somewhat remarkable that he should undertake, at once, to condemn such men as those I have named for negligence or incapacity, or for ignorance as to how the business of Committees should be transacted!

What words are sufficiently strong to characterize the conduct of a person who being associated with gentlemen on a Committee, who treat him in the most courteous manner, finds no fault openly with any part of their manner of proceeding, desires no explanation of what he considers wrong; but, afterwards, makes

What words are sufficiently strong to characterize the conduct of a person who being associated with gentlemen on a Committee, who treat him in the most courteous manner, finds no fault openly with any part of their manner of proceeding, desires no explanation of what he considers wrong; but, afterwards, makes an attack on their conduct of which he, at the time, and in their presence, made no complaint; and who thus, in their absence, stabs, with coward hand, at their reputations! More especially, what language can characterize such conduct, when there is not a shadow of foundation for any of the assertions, made, or at least adopted by him. In Pletcher himself voted to report to the House, nearly all, if not all, the Bills reported by the Committee, except the Bill commonly called the Divorce Bill. On this he did not suggest any desire for further examination.—How does he dare to blame others for voting that a bill be reported to the House when he himself has prepared to do it, and did do it? He voted, without reserve, for the Bill authorizing the issue of Treasury Notes. He suggested before the Committee, no doubts as to its constitutionality. He opposed it in the House on the ground of unconstitutionality. The speech says that the Bills laid before the Committee were adopted by them weithout examination. It is not take. The Bills were examined is the most laborious and thorough manner. They were examined section by section, and the sense of the Committee was taken on each clause. They were discussed both as to their principles and details; and amendments, both of form and substance, were proposed and rejected or adopted. Mr Fletcher's charges relating to the Resolution was not drawn at all until the occurracy in the precise form in which it passed the charges relating to the Resolution was not drawn at all until the committee had directed their Chairman to report such an one. It was then drawn by the Chairman in presence of the Committee, and is now on the files of the House in his hand writing. The Senate a

Mr Fletcher says that the Resolution on the subject of the Air Fietcher says that the Resolution on the subject of the Bank was introduced by the Chairman without preface or explanation. It is not true,—as is seen from the foregoing statement in the Globe. He says that "the Resolution was sent in, and by the help of the previous question forced through the House." If this is meant as an intimation that there was no discussion—it is not true. Mr Sargeant of Pennsylvania, occupied several mornings in bringing forward, with his wonted ability, the usual arguments in favor of a Bank. It is surely ability, the usual arguments in favor of a Bank. It is surely not for the friends of a Bank to complain because the Democratknowing that the arguments on both sides were familiar to the public mind, were willing that the question should be taken without any reply to Mr Sargeant's Speech.

After all the above disclosures of the real facts of the case, how does this access.

how does this accuser appear, who, on such grounds, unblushingly, charges the Executive with an interference on this occasion with the right of Petition! It may be well to recapitulate shortly, some of the misrepresentations contained in Mr. Fletcher's speech as printed and circulated. The speech says, that the Bills acted on by the Cammilten were brought there by the Chairman from the Executive. It is NOT TIME. Most if not all of the Bills acted on by the Committee had been first matured by the Committee on Finance of the Senate. The speech says that the Chairman stepped up to the White House to obtain the Bills. It is not true. The Chairman avers that he never once consulted with the President on any measure before the Committee, nor did he ever receive any Bill nor any part of any Bill from him. The speech says, the Bills laid before the Committee were adopted and reported by them without examination. It is not true. Mr. Fletcher knew that they were carefully and thoroughly examined, section by section, and clause by clause, and discussed both as to their principles and details. The Speech intimates that the Bills were reported to the House word for word, letter for letter, end comma for comma, as laid before the committee. He KNEW that various ameadments both of form and substance were proposed and discussed, some of which were rejected and some adopted. The Speech says, that the Executive Majority in the House passed each Bill forthwith just as it came from their masters at the White House. The Bills acted on by the Committee were not even those drafts made at the Treasury Department, and HE KNEW that the Bills were not reported in the former. and HE KNEW that the Bills were not reported in the form as laid before the Committee by their Chairman. The speech says, that there is no doubt that the Resolution on the subject of a National Bank came down from the Executive in the very form in which it passed. HE KNEW it did not come down from the Executive at all, for HE KNEW that the very first time the subject of a Bank was introduced in the Committee a discussion The speech says, that on the last day but one on which the Committee sat, the Chairman without preface or explanation introduced the above Resolution. He knew that the subject had been postponed twice, one of the times, if not both, at his own request. He knew that the time had been fixed days before hand when the subject should be finally disposed of. Of a truth, if it be a gratification to Mr. Fletcher "to indu/ge himself in falsehoods like those," and he uttered these charges—it must be

The charges made against the Executive and against the Committee of Ways and Means are thus seen to be utterly and entirely unfounded. They are false in gross and palse in detail. They are false in the Letter and palse in the spirit. His speech presents an admirable specimen of the nature of the attacks made on an Executive selected by the People in the systems of their right of sufficient. Here is a present when in the exercise of their right of suffrage. Here is a person who, having been a member of the House of Representatives during the extra Session, has espied all in his power of corruption and misrule. He returns to delight his constituents by pouring into Page 27 their ready ears all his tremendous discoveries, which are to shake the Administration to its fall. What charge has he been shake the Administration to its fall. What charge has he been able to produce I only such sheer and pitiful fabrications as these! Take them away, and the whole speech "melts into thin air." These charges are proved thus false, not only by the testimony of men whose characters for veracity no breath of slander ever dared as ail, but also by varietn records on the files of the liouse, and in the hands of the Chairman of the Committee. tee. Such, then, he it known to the People of New Hampshire, are the means relied upon for success with them at the ensuing election. Such are the fabrications which are caused to be circulated by the Federalists of Boston far and wide among them, to enlighten their minds—to convince them that it is better to be governed by a huge and irresponsible moneyed Monopoly, or by a combination of moneyed Corporations, than by the popular will—and to satisfy them that they have every thing to fear from a Democratic President of their own choice but nothing to fear from those who belong to the party of that man who said that "popular governments must be overturned." Such are the fabrications relied upon to induce the voters of New Hampshire to pronounce by their suffirages that the leading Editor of the opposition in Massachusetts—the same one who ridiculed the "huge paws" of the farmers, is correct, when he calls the President, to whom, a year since, New Hampshire gave her suffrages, "the profligate President of the United States," and when he terms General Jackson "a brutal-minded and un-principled chief."

SUCH THE PARTICATIONS relied upon to induce them to declare at the polls, that the Veto on the Bank and the removal of the Deposites, measures which a majority of the people of the United States and of New Hampshire have solemnly approved, demonstrate that General Jackson was a ferocious tyrant, and are the causes of all the pecuniary embarrassments which have pervaded not only this Country but also England, and even SUCH THE PARRICATIONS relied on to induce them to reprobate the democratic doctrines and measures they have so long and so nobly upheid—to repudiate the men whem they have trusted—and, with sorrow and contrition for their past of have trusted—and, with sorrow and contrition for their past offences, to cast the image of Freedom soiled and broken at their hands, as a peace-offering, into the lap of Federal Massachusetts, who eagerly waits the profanation. Such the fabrications relied upon to induce them to bring reproach on their own independence and on their own intelligence, and afford the enemies of free governments a triumph in being able to cast doubts on the capacity of the people to understand their own rights and their own interests.

Before I conclude, I cannot forbear remarking, that I think too highly of the intelligence of the people of New Hampshire to be-lieve that such statements as those contained in Mr Fletcher's speech could gain much credit, though uncontradicted, even with any political party. But I thought it due to myself, and espe-

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1837.

105-The Hon Charles G. Atherton's Letter to the Editor of the New Hampshire Patriot, will be found in our columns to day. It takes a fair and candid view of the whole subject under discussion, presents a full and perfect vindication of the conduct of the Committee from the charges cast upon them by Mr Fletcher, and leaves their Lafitte stood both for Paris and Rouen, and was beaten at both accuser with the brand of calumniator indelibly impressed plan upon him. The letter is written with much ability, and Don Carlos had been forced to re-enter Biscay. in so lucid a style that no one can fail to understand the conclusiveness of the arguments adduced in support of the positions the author assumes.

The paltry manner in which the Atlas was seothed, and conxed to swallow its words, by having the preference given it over those of its contemporaries who defended Mr Fletcher, in the first publication of the "appeal," must excite general contempt for the honorable member, and his organ.

The busines in order being the motion of Mr Adams to refer the memorial of the New York Peace Society to a elect committee, with instructions to read, consider, and report upon the same,-

The motion was taken up and Mr Adams spoke at length on the subject.

The Speaker would not suffer the gentleman to go on, his remarks being out of order.

Mr A. took up the subject of the message in relation to Mexico, and denied the fact stated in one of the paragraphs. He called on the chairman of the committee on Foreign Relations, to show on what authority the President had made the expression as to the epinion of this House.

The Chair arrested Mr A.'s remarks.

Mr Underwood appealed.

BETWEEN
"PHYSICIANS AND THE MATCHLESS SANATIVE." WHY are some of the American Physicians making

. such strong efforts to PUT DOWN the Matchless Sanative? Let the Public answer.

2. Why did the German physicians at first OPPOSE Dr., Goelick, and afterwards acknowledge him to be a GREAT RENEFACTOR to mankind? Let the Public answer.

3. What medicine HAS cured, IS curing and WILL cure obstinate diseases which physicians CANNOT cure? Let Facts answer.

4 What kind of appletrees are most STONED and CLUBBED? Let Farmers answer.

5. Why are physicians constantly PELTING the Sanative and saying nothing against Official medicines? Let their

Day Book answer. How did Dr Adams attempt to convince Mr Webster who had hought a viol of the Sanative for a member of his family, that it was a D NGEROUS medicine? Let one of the daily papers answer. 'The recent experiment which Dr Adams tried with the Matchless Sanative, in giving a large dose to a dog, without killing kim, clearly proves that the Sanative was made to CURE and not to KILL.'

T. Why do some physicians SECRETELY buy the Sanative and MIX it with their own medicines, which they use in their daily practice? Answer—that they may have the CREDIT of the CURES.

BDHELPS'S ARCANUM .- For the cure of the worst diseases of the skin, ulcerous sores, scrofula or king's evil, syphilitic and mercurist diseases, rheumatism, white swellings, liver affections, costiveness of the bowels, general debility &c. And such diseases as are caused by an impure or bad condition of the blood. It is likewise particularly recommended to those whose constitutions are broken by habits of luxury and intemperance, the injudicious use of quinfint and mercury, and badly cured diseases, by unskilful or neg lected medical treatment, and all those whose lungs and chest are diseased by remote causes in the system.

The Arcanum has proved itself by years of experience far superior in its effects to the Panneen of Swaim Catholicon e. Potter, or the French Robs. In testimony of the above statement, we refer to the opinion of Dr Sam'i L. Mitchell, of New York, Dr Jones of Baton Rouge, Dr Archer at Virginia, Dr Godman of Philadelphia, who have investigate, the properties and officacy of the article, and affirmed it as being sujerior to all medicines in their knowledge, for the removal of the discuss above named. Boylsten, Mass. Aug. 1st, 1835.

In the year 1830 I requested Dr Phelps to visit a daughter of mine, weed about 15 years, having a distortion of the spine or back bone, and whose general health had always becufee.

The curvature of the spine, at that time, had acquired a hopeless and singularly disfigured appearance, and the Stern im or breast bone corresponded with the distortron, presenting to the beholder a deformity calculated to excite the deepest sympathy. From the first appearance of this disease, I had solicited the most skilful of the profession, whose attendance, various prescriptions and remedies were unattended. ance, various prescriptions and remedies were unattended with success or benefit in a word, the progressive march of the disease bid defiance to the ingenuity of skill, and the pow-

It was under these circumstances that we commenced the use of the Arcanam, which was perseveringly administered for several months. Her general health soon began to improve, and the progress of the disease was gradually arrested by this medicine only, and the use of the salt water bath. From this pegiod, her strength and energies of mind and body were evidently improving, and the deformity has subsided with the growth of years. At this time, which is more than five years since, we adopted the treatment of Dr Phelps, my daughter is in the enjoyment of good health, to our aston ishment and admiration. pPeoSi-epS NOTGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints, weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequentloss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatus lence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience. The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the Unit of States, and in the West Indies, attested by dising terested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from judigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, con stant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting painever almost the whole system-the food that I ate seemed to pass into my longs and there remain, giving me great pain us tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bes for two or three days. Foring one of these most severe attacke I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myseli wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stourch, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the sto mach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my ovn case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstructe headache. It is put up in targe bottles containing a pound and a hali

ERADICATOR

R LE AGE'S SPECEFIQUE FOR SEtor.' The above remedy for the most distressing di ease incident to the human race, originated from the enlightened mind of the eminent Le Sage, the promulgation and success of which throughout the kingdoms of France and Italy, has, of late years, anded such high honors to the already highly hon ored name of the inventor. This composition unites safety with efficacy. And the venereal disease, whether in the form of Gonorshau're, Glant're, englished by the use of it. form of Gonorrhea' or 'Gleet,'is etadicated by the use of it, with certainty and success, and the sufferer is restored to hisus id health, without delay, or inconvenience. Tens of thou, sands of Parisians' will accede to the truth of these remarks and it is confidently offered to those afflicted, as the best and surest renerly for the above mentioned loathsome disorder.— The secret has hitherto been confined to France and Italy .-It is now for the first time introduced by way of 'New Or leans' to the Americ in public, and is sold, in this city, only at No. 48 Ann street, opposite Merchants' Row, near the Market, by E.
